TRACK DRIES OUT RAPIDLY

SECOND DAY OF RACING AT LEXINGTON MARKED BY CLOSE CONTESTS.

Embroidery Wins Day's Feature from Lindenthal—Hocnir the Only Successful Favorite—Powerful Whitney String Coming to Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., April 23.—Horses trained at Louisville divided the Kentucky Association's second day card this afternoon with horses trained at Lexington, the winners from Louisville being Billy Joe. Hocnir and Intention, while those trained here were Cosmic, Embroidery and Transit. The weather was clear and warm, with the track a bit slow at the beginning of the racing, but improving so rapidly that it was fast at the end. The contests, generally speaking, were close and interesting and they were witnessed by a goodly number of enthusiastic spectators.

The day's feature was the Combs' purse, for three-year-olds and upward at one mile, carrying in addition to first money a silver cup donated by the Combs Lumber company to the owner of the winner, who, as it turned out, was Arthur B. Hancock, owner of the Ellerslie Stud at Charlottesville, Va., he being the breeder and owner of the aptly-named Embroidery, which, after wearing down Benanet withstood the belated rush of Lindenthal — probably best — and won by half a length. It was a poor start, in which Hank O'Day suffered most. Little String, while leading into the backstretch, stumbled slightly and lost some ground.

J. W. May saddled a good two-year-old in Cosmic, the property of John G. Greener, of Nashville, and the first of the get of Countless to come to the post. In fact he is the only two-year-old by that good horse. W. Meehan rode him well.

Hocnir was the only winning first choice. Intention, another of the get of Hilarious, from the stable of J. L. Holland, and trained by Dick Williams, won all the way and is a good filly.

Transit was probably lucky to win the closing race in that Buck Keenon, running easily and seemingly best, was knocked to his knees and jockey Warrington unseated as they were coming up the hill. Warrington fortunately was not seriously injured, but jockey Griffin, who pulled over against him with Wryneck in an attempt to get to the rail, was suspended for five days.

O. A. Bianchi, when he found that thirteen was the number of the trainer's license issued to him, said, "That's no jinx for me. It's the best sort of luck that number. Why, one season I shipped from here to Louisville on Friday, the thirteenth, with thirteen horses and I won more races than ever before that year. Dozens of times in my life that number has figured in successes for me." Bianchi today reported the arrival of a fine chestnut colt, foal by Jim Gaffney from Irish Queen, the first daughter of Bearcatcher to go into the stud. He also reported that Ethelda and Silk Day have been mated with Jim Gaffney, and that Miss Thorpe, which raced today, will also go to his court next week.

W. L. Lewis reported a bay filly by Peep o'Day from Crystal Maid, and a brown filly by Ormondale from Silk Maid. Last year he had colt foals from these mares by the same horses, but both died. They are the only two mares he now has.

William Ryan, well-known Chicago racing devotee, was among the visitors today.

J. W. May expresed himself as highly pleased with the saddle work of his new jockey, Willie Meehan.

According to advices received today from trainer James Rowe, in charge of the Harry Payne Whitney horses, the extensive band of twenty-seven horses intended for Kentucky racing, will be shipped from Brookdale Farm in New Jersey April 27 and reach Louisville the following day. In the shipment will come Regret and the other stars in the establishment. Mr. Rowe will be in charge of the horses during the Kentucky campaign.

Andrew Miller's band of seven racers is due to reach Louisville tomorrow from New York, having been shipped yesterday. The lot includes Roamer, which will be pointed for the rich Kentucky Handicap, to be run on the opening day of the Douglas Park meeting. Trainer A. J. Goldsborough will be in charge of the horses.

Frank M. Taylor, formerly trainer for the Hallenbeck stable, was an arrival today and will make an effort to secure some likely racers that he intends to campaign on the eastern courses this season.

Preston Burch, who has ben training John Sanford's horses in France, was among today's arrivals.

Trainer Karrick was advised today that Messrs. Knapp and Hitchcock will be unable to leave New York until next Wednesday. Schuyler L. Parsons will not come with the party on account of illness. Phosphor and Sharpshooter, in the Karrick establishment, which are being pointed for the Kentucky Derby, are training in good shape and if it is decided that both are to go to the post, jockey Butwell will have the mount on one and Loftus on the other. Immediately following the running of the Derby, the Knapp-Hitchcoek-Parsons racers will be sent east.

The track this morning was again unsuited to fast training operations. Among the best trials were:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

George Miller, former jockey, has arrived at Havre de Grace from Juarez with two horses.

Dan (White Hat) McCarthy is seriously sick at San Francisco. He has been in bad health for some time.

Jockey Obert, who was injured by falling from Dr. Duenner on the opening day of the meeting, is out of the Havre de Grace hospital and well on his way to complete recovery from his injuries.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE PEDIGREES OF JAMES BUTLER'S CRACK CANDIDATES FOR THE KENTUCKY DERBY

By Dr. M. M. LEACH

Pebbles, Last Coin and Kilkenny Boy, James Butler's aspirants for Kentucky Derby honors, are now quartered at Louisville and it is understood that they will take no part in racing until Derby day.

Pebbles, I suppose, must be considered the public choice for the classic, but a glance at his last year's performances shows that he is no smasher, for Sharpshooter, in receipt, it is true, of 10 pounds, beat him out of a place in a mile race at Laurel last fall and Regret was altogether too much for him at Saratoga. I do not know that Pebbles' pedigree reads like getting one and one-quarter miles in high-class company so early as May 8 and Pebbles, should his connections elect to keep him in Louisville, will not have the advantage of a run in public before the day of the race. Here is his pedigree:

Ben Brush, Pebbles' sire, has given to the turf such notable race horses as Broomstick and Delhi and is mainly instrumental in having kept the Bonnie Scotland line alive in this country. Bramble, Ben Brush's sire, introduces, besides the Bonnie Scotland strain, the blood of those famous imported horses, Australian and Yorkshire. Roseville, Ben Brush's dam, is a daughter of the pure-bred Reform, son of Leamington and Stolen Kisses, by Knight of Kars, a direct tail male descendant of Smolensko, the only black horse which ever won the Epsom Derby. Albia, Ben Brush's granddam, introduces the flying blood of Alarm, and Ben Brush is a member of the Maria West line, the greatest of all American families and, though this line is not accorded a place in Bruce Lowe's figure guide, it is more productive of famous race horses, prolific broodmares and successful stallions than many another family honored with a figure by the Australian statistician.

Running Stream, Pebbles' dam, is by Domino, giving to the pedigree another cross of the speedy blood of Alarm and an additional strain to Leamington, by way of Enquirer, so that Pebbles is certainly bred for speed. Old Rosebud, last year's winner of the Kentucky Derby, was also bred on the plan of returning the blood of Alarm. Moreover, Running Stream had a bit of class about her in her racing days and, in England, won among other races the July Stakes at Newmarket.

Dancing Water, granddam of Pebbles, was an imported daughter of Isonomy, and is a stoutly-bred member of the No. 14 family. It is worthy of notice that Cyllene, a smasher on the race course and famous as the sire of four Derby winners, is out of one of Isonomy's daughters, Arcadia. Then comes Pretty Dance, by Doncaster, and Doncaster, although defeated by Mary Stuart in the St. Leger, afterwards proved himself the better stayer by winning the Ascot Gold Cup. Back of this, too, the pedigree is first class, showing as it does crosses of Scottish Chief, Lambourne and Touchstone, and perhaps all this accumulation of staying blood, at the back of the pedigree, will counter balance the sprinting tendencies of the Domino line. However, judged both on his pedigree and performances, Pebbles' forte would appear to be speed rather than endurance.

Last Coin and Kilkenny Boy are sons of the double Domino horses, Ultimus and Hippodrome, both of which are maidens, and if these two are to succeed as sires, imported mates are surely necessary. Ultimus got Luke McLuke, out of Midge, by Trenton, from Sandfly, by Isonomy, and Luke McLuke's wonderful racing merit was, I am convinced, due largely to his Trenton blood, for he closely resembles that grand horse in color and general characteristics. Here is Last Coin's pedigree:

LAST COIN, 9, bay colt, foaled 1912 by	Ultimus ...14	Commando 12	Domino 23	Himyar 2	Alarm ....15 E Hira ....H
				Mannie Gray ...	†Enquirer ....E Lizzie G. ....H

Ultimus is inbred to Domino and, strangely enough, Last Coin's dam, Half Crown, is inbred to Distant Shore, daughter of Hermit, maternal ancestress of both Cyllene, sire of Half Crown, and Half Crown herself. Half Crown, I take it, is an exceptionally well-bred mare. Cyllene, her sire, was a wonder, and his dam was Arcadia, by Isonomy, which is a splendid return for the Isonomy strain found in the pedigree of Ultimus, and should the influence of Isonomy predominate, Last Coin may be found capable of staying the one and one-quarter miles Derby route. Bona Vista, Cyllene's sire, gives to the pedigree a dash of the best broodmare blood in the world—that of Macaroni. Lady Minting, a big, fine mare, was a daughter of

Caper Sauce and Old Reliable constitute Sol. Mintz's stable at present, but he may buy another Ontario-bred before moving down from Hamilton to Woodbine.

Word from the Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia, where Capt. E. B. Cassatt was recently operated upon for appendicitis, is to the effect that he is convalescing rapidly and will be removed to his home within a few days.

Jack Creevy, who rode with considerable success for R. T. Wilson a few years ago, will be married to Miss Katherine Stratton of Saratoga Springs on May 2. Creevy is now assisting Tom Healey in the training of the Wilson string.

Med Henderson has gone to Benning to take charge of the jumpers of Tim Donohue, quartered at that track. The stable comprises eight timber-toppers, headed by Bay Brook and Enniskillen, and will be made ready for racing through the field at Pimlico.

H. M. Mason, who for many years was one of the leading trainers of America, when he handled the horses of the late J. G. Follansbee so successfully, is getting together another string in California for the coming summer. Among the horses he has is a three-year-old by Ostler Joe—Eleven Bells, which Mr. Mason thinks will prove to be a good race horse.

George W. Wingfield, A. B. Spreckels, R. J. Mackenzie, Melvin Lawrence and D. O. Lively, chief of the live stock division of the Panama Pacific Exposition, make up the committee which is arranging for the race meeting which it is proposed to hold in connection with the great fair at San Francisco. If the California legislature passes the bill for a state racing commission the meeting will be conducted under its control.

The horses of H. C. Hallenbeck, now quartered at his Shrewsbury farm in New Jersey, will be transferred to Belmont Park at once and prepared for the opening of the metropolitan racing at that course May 20. The Hallenbeck string, numbering almost thirty head, will include iron Duke and The Finn, recently purchased from John E. Madden for $35,000. These two are eligible for the Kentucky Derby, but it is probable only one of them will be shipped back to the blue grass country for that classic, while the other will be pointed for the Metropolitan Handicap.

WHITNEY JUVENILES SCORE

BROOKDALE BRED TWO-YEAR-OLDS CUTTING WIDE SWATH IN THE EAST.

Both Juvenile Events Go to Credit of Noted New York Sportsman—Pesky Changes Hands After Winning Germantown Selling Stakes.

Havre de Grace, Md., April 23.—The stable of H. P. Whitney furnished the winners of both of today's juvenile races. The feature event of the afternoon, the Germantown Selling Stakes, a dash of half a mile, was won by Pesky, while Broomvale disposed of a fair band of youngsters in the second. The card offered was one of the best programmed during the meeting. In addition to the stake feature, there were two selling handicaps. The racing throughout the afternoon was wholesome, several of the finishes being marked by hard stretch drives.

Pesky, lightly weighted and accounted the winner of a fluke race in her previous start, was rushed to the front when the break came in the stake race, and Louder saved ground with her all the way. She easily disposed of her opposition in the final furlong and had plenty left at the end. Golden List, a serious factor from the start, raced Gentlewoman into early submission, but was forced to do her best to withstand Iolite's bid for second place. The latter ran sluggishly in the early stages, but closed with a rush. H. G. Bedwell, on a bid of $1,200, representing an advance of $700 over her entered price, became Pesky's owner.

A marked change in weather conditions resulted in a notable increase in attendance in the stands and on the lawns. The weather was threatening at the beginning, but cleared during the afternoon.

The public had a shade the better of the argument with the layers, as the majority of the winners were well supported. The opening dash resulted in a great surprise when Ada Anne outlasted Sherwood. Ada Anne is the longest-priced winner since the opening of the season. As good as 100 to 1 was freely quoted against her chances and the ring failed to lay up anything when she scored. A dispute resulted when the mare was offered for sale and sold for $800. The bidder failed to have the required amount and she was ordered to be resold after the running of the third race, when no bid was offered.

Celto kept up the good form she has displayed on several occasions in taking one of the selling handicaps from good oppositon, and Cliff Field got up in the closing strides of the fifth race to dispose of Progressive, while Andrew scored in the closing dash over He Will after a drive through the stretch.

Harry Stone, who was taken ill in the paddock yesterday, died in the Havre de Grace hospital at three o'clock this morning, without regaining consciousness. It was discovered that his fatal illness resulted from a hemorrhage of the brain. Robert Stone, a brother, will come from Toronto for the body tomorrow. A few seasons ago Harry Stone was one of the foremost steeplechase jockeys in the country. He came from Canada an amateur rider, but soon joined the ranks of the professionals.

Gifford A. Cochran has sold his two-year-old Penance to John W. Pangle.

Preston Burch has gone to Kentucky to buy horses for John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y. Before leaving Havre de Grace, he made offers for Ten Point and Waterbass, but no sale resulted. It is also probable that he will purchase the green jumper Harry Lauder, which has been working in a sensational manner over the Benning course.

WINGFIELD STRING COMING EAST.

San Francisco, Cal., April 23.—George W. Wingfield spent a few days this week at his ranch near Sacramento looking over his string of thoroughbreds in training there in charge of George Strate. He has some forty mares in foal and eight as fine-looking two-year-olds as one would wish to see. His good mare, Celesta, is going along well and he has decided to ship part of his string east.

"Yes, I'm doing everything I can to give Nevada as good and clean racing as Kentucky. Racing properly conducted with the pari-mutuel machines is the finest sport in the world. I'm in the game for the sport and not for the betting feature. I'm going into breeding extensively from now on and see if I can't breed a few stake winners," said Mr. Wingfield.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Amendments to the prize rules governing the operation of the German navy, signed by Emperor William and Admiral von Tirpitz and published in the Reichsanzeiger, were designed as "a reprisal for the decision made by England and its allies contravening the declaration of London on Feb. 26, 1909." Under the new order field glasses, nautical instruments, pig lead, aeroplanes, coal, and coke are made absolute contraband. Several other commodities are added to the list of conditional contraband, including wool, rubber, iron, and several other ores.

Although the passes and defiles leading down into the plains of Hungary are still deep with water and the Russian advance is held up, there appears to be plenty of fighting on the Carpathian front, with the Russians on the defensive. Two parallel flanking movements have been launched by the Germans and Austrians simultaneously—one in the Mezo Laborcz and Lupkow pass region, and the other in the region of Gorlice, with the object of getting to the rear of the Beskids and cutting off Russian communication. Neither has been successful.

A Havas dispatch from Athens says advices received from Chios stated that heavy firing had been heard there, which leads to the supposition that the bombardment of the Smyrna forts has been resumed. Four British warships entered the Dardanelles Thursday and bombarded the forts for three hours. The Turkish fortifications also were subjected to an indirect fire from the Gulf of Saros. They replied vigorously to the attack of the warships. French mine sweepers are continuing their operations actively.

Russian dirigibles are now being used to harass General von Hindenburg's lines of communication. An official statement issued at Petrograd says one of them bombarded the German positons near Plock, dropping fifteen bombs on the enemy's transports, badly damaging them. Several German boats on the Vistula also were sunk. Two other dirigibles dropped bombs on the railway station at Mlawa and on the German aerodrome at Nanniky.

Emperor Yoshihito and the elder statesmen, according to the Japanese newspaper Jiji Shimpo, have sanctioned the cabinet's program with reference to the demands upon China, and Minister Eki Hioki will make known his country's position at Peking at once. If China declines to accede to the demands, the Jiji intimates, the situation will become grave.

The Panama canal shows a net loss of about 10 per cent in the comparison of tolls collected with the cost of operation and maintenance for the first eight months of its operation, according to an official statement. Up to March 1, 1915, the cost of operation and maintenance was $2,595,613.33, the total earnings $2,334,515.24. The tolls are steadily increasing.

That the British government does not intend to have recourse to prohibition in dealing with the drink question was inferred from Premier Asquith's statement in the house of commons. The premier said that on Wednesday or Thursday next the chancellor of the exchequer, David Lloyd-George, would bring forward proposals for "dealing with the limiting of facilities for drinking."

All steamboat communication with Holland has been stopped by order of the British government. Taken in connection with the news from Berlin that British submarines have been in the bight of Helgoland, where the German admiralty lays claim to having sunk one, and perhaps more, this is believed to foreshadow some naval movement in the North sea.

The presence of an Anglo-French squadron in the waters to the north of Stavanger, Norway, is reported by vessels coming into Copenhagen. A Norwegian coast steamer from these waters says it was stopped and inspected by a British warship. Reports continue to be received at Copenhagen of the presence of German warships in the North sea.

Floods that swept down Waller and Shoal creeks at Austin, Tex., took a toll of fifteen lives. Houses were jammed in masses against the bridges and the high water flooded many business houses. Heroic work was done by citizen rescue parties and by the fire and police departments.

The Germans have captured and taken into Hamburg the Norwegian steamer Brilliant, which left Fredrikstad, Norway, April 16 for London, says the Morning Post's Christiania correspondent. The steamer was loaded with a cargo of granite, deal planks, and paper.

The German admiralty gave out a statement reading as follows: "The German high sea fleet has recently cruised repeatedly in the North sea, advancing into English waters without meeting the sea forces of Great Britain."

All Danish women are to be allowed to vote, under the provisions of a new constitution adopted by the Danish parliament yesterday.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE PEDIGREES OF JAMES BUTLER'S CRACK CANDIDATES FOR THE KENTUCKY DERBY.

Minting, sire of Maid of the Mint, Spearmint's dam, son of Lord Lyon and Mint Sauce, by the famous broodmare sire, Young Melbourne. Next in line we find Virginia Shore, by the Voltigeur horse, John Davis, and so on down to Maid of Masham. In fact, Half Crown possesses a splendid pedigree and would, I am convinced, be admirably suited by a horse of St. Simon descent and from such a union I should expect a Derby winner indeed. Should Last Coin prove to be the winner, his success must be attributed to the doubling up of the Isonomy and Doncaster strains.

Kilkenny Boy, like his famous half-brother, Celt, is a chestnut and raced with considerable success on the eastern tracks last season, but I rather think his form was inferior to that of either Pebbles or Last Coin. However, Maid of Erin, his dam, is an exceedingly well-bred daughter of Amphion and produced in Celt the best staying son of Commando and I have it on good authority that he was Colin's master over a distance of ground. Here is Kilkenny Boy's pedigree:

Hippodrome, Kilkenny Boy's sire, like Ultimus, is a maiden and also shows a double cross of the Domino strain. I tell you, without fear of contradiction, that this inbreeding is injurious, that the race course test is the only true test and that breeding to maidens is courting disaster. American turfmen, tardily, it is true, have at last been brought to realize the superiority of the British thoroughbred horse, which superiority is in a measure due to horror of English breeders for a maiden. Of course occasional cases such as Wisdom crop out, but few maidens indeed are patronized to any extent by the blood stock breeders of the British Isles. Run your eye over the list of famous English stallions since the days of Diomed on down to Polymelus and wou will see that 95 per cent. of them enjoyed a successful racing career.

Hippodrome's granddam, Editha, was a sister to the Derby winner, Melton, and is a member of Bruce Lowe's No. 8 family, famous for the production of great sires, a point in Hippodrome's favor. However, I think students of pedigrees will agree that should Kilkenny Boy demonstrate any great ability as a race horse that his excellence in this respect will be largely due to the influence of his dam, that great producer and well-bred daughter of Amphion, Maid of Erin.

Maid of Erin's sire, Amphion, is a Blacklock horse and is the sire of Sundridge, and Maid of Erin is out of imported Mavourneen, Voter's dam, by the Matchem horse, Barcaldine, which also got The Task, Sain's dam, and Barley, dam of Malster, which reigned so long as the champion sire of Australia.

The family of Maid of Erin is the same from which Peep o'Day descends, the Sunflower branch of the No. 1 family, and shows a fine return through Flora MacDonald, by Scottish Chief, to the same strain in Violet Melrose, dam of Editha, which appears in Hippodrome's pedigree, and perhaps this wealth of staying blood, in conjunction with the speed transmitted by Alarm, may enable Kilkenny Boy to attain high rank as a race horse.

Writing a few days ago on the pedigree of Pif Jr., I gave his sire as Watercress. This was an error. Pif Jr.'s sire is Waterboy, son of Watercress, and out of Zealandia, by Sir Modred, and a New Zealander, which the late James B. Haggin imported some years back and which stood as a highly successful stallion for a number of years at his Rancho del Paso stud in California. Zealandia was as near as anything clean bred, out of Roke, by Alarm, from Rokee, by Waverly, son of imported Australian and imported Cicely Jopson, by Weatherbit—Eclipse, Herod and Matchem again. Rosaline, the next dam, was by Commodore, which introduces the American strain, and Rosaline was out of Fanny Wells, by imported Sovereign, from Reel, dam of War Dance, by imported Glencoe, out of imported Galopade. Waterboy was quite first class as a race horse and his early death is greatly to be deplored, especially as he had met with much success as a stallion.
